My Dear Little Janet,

Just to think tomorrow you will be seven years old and I wish I could be with you for a know we would have a birthday party and that is always a lot of fun. Since I can't be there I am writing you and am also mailing under separate cover a little book I thought you might be glad to receive and I hope you will enjoy reading it. Then when Daddy comes to Indiana you will read it to him.

I just know that you are enjoying every minute in Indiana with all your relations. I surely hope so and that Mother and sisters are all have a good time.

I surely enjoyed the letter you wrote me and would be so glad if you will write again and tell me what you are doing.

It is still very hot here, only better than it was as there have been some slight showers falling over various parts of the state.

Hope you have a very happy birthday and many happy returns.

I love you good ever your Daddy
