

156th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

THIS Regiment was organized May 15, 16 and 17, 1864, at Camp Dennison, O., to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Thirty-fourth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Preble County; Eightieth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Mercer County; and the Eighty-first Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Auglaize County. On the 20th of May Companies A, B, C, D, E, F, and H, proceeded to Cincinnati, where they performed guard duty. Companies G, I, and K, remained at Camp Dennison, on guard and patrol duty, until Morgan appeared in the vicinity of Cynthiana, Ky., when they were sent to Falmouth, Ky. The seven Companies remained on duty at Cincinnati until July 18th, when the entire Regiment was brought together at Covington and moved to Paris, Ky. The Regiment was soon ordered to Cumberland, Md., arriving on the 31st of July, and went into camp near that city. On the 1st of August the Regiment had an engagement with the enemy near Folek's Mills, with slight loss. After this engagement the Regiment remained on duty at and near Cumberland until the 26th of August, when it was ordered to Ohio for muster-out. It was mustered out September 1, 1864, on expiration of its term of service.
